

SUCCESSFUL WORRY!

Have you been worrying lately? If you are going to worry it follows that you ought to worry in a way that will be successful. May I offer a few suggestions on how to worry successfully.

First, one at a time, please. If a thing is worth worrying about at all, it deserves your undivided attention.

Second, make it definite. Take your worry out and look at it. It would help to write it down. Define it. You can't worry successfully until you realize what it is you are worrying about.

Third, don't worry alone. Share your worry with a friend. Bounce it off someone else a few times. This will enable them to worry along with you.

Fourth, realize that it doesn't do any good to worry. Perhaps it provides some mental exercise, but it could drive you crazy. It depends on how much time you devote to worry.

Fifth, and most important, let God in on your worry. Remember, God is interested in you. You are important to Him. Lean yourself upon the Lord. Turn your cares and burdens over to Him, then your worry will be turned into success.

Opportunity for Benevolence

In his letter to the church in Ephesus, Paul explained in chapter 2 verse 10 "For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them." Later on, in Chapter 4, he was outlining how Christian's should act and behave. In verse 28, he gives direction to the saints, "He who steals should steal no longer, but rather he must labor, performing with his own hands what is good, so that will have something to share with one who has need."

Most of you are aware that we recently buried the husband of Kim Bailey, (a new sister in Christ), and father of Clarissa, Bishop, Ashanti, Marshall, and Jennifer. Due to his extended illness for the past 4+ years, Mr. Bailey was unable to afford life insurance. And, due to the expense of a proper funeral and burial, the family has a real need for some help.

Unfortunately, most of you are also aware that the treasury has been suffering the past 2 years, and we cannot afford to offer much from there. If you have a desire to help, and can possibly afford it, please see Bill Riemer. Any checks may be made out to the church, with "Benevolence" written in the memo field, or any funds may be inserted in the small envelopes, labeled "Benevolence", for anonymous donations.
