

PULLING BY HIMSELF?

A traveler had driven his car into a ditch in a remote area. A local farmer came to help with his big strong horse named "Buddy." After hitching buddy up to the car he yelled, "Pull, Nellie, Pull." Buddy stood still. He said, "Pull, Coco, Pull." Nothing! The farmer then said, "Pull, Buster, Pull" but again Buddy did not move. The farmer then nonchalantly said, "Pull, Buddy, Pull!" And the horse easily dragged the car out of the ditch.

The traveler was thankful-- but very curious. He asked the farmer why he called his horse by the wrong name three times. The farmer said, "Oh, Buddy is blind and if he thought he was the only one pulling, he wouldn't even try."

Sad, but some folks are that way. Let us pull together and do what God wants us to do-- to get to heaven.

Psalm 119:121-128 (NIV)

I have done what is righteous and just;
do not leave me to my oppressors.

Ensure your servant's well-being;
let not the arrogant oppress me.

My eyes fail, looking for your salvation,
looking for your righteous promise.

Deal with your servant according to your love
and teach me your decrees.

I am your servant; give me discernment
that I may understand your statutes.

It is time for you to act, O LORD;
your law is being broken.

Because I love your commands
more than gold, more than pure gold,

and because I consider all your precepts right,
I hate every wrong path.
